Thank You

Your generosity to Union College has made it possible for students like Lazaren, a Class of 2017 economics major, to pursue a career in international affairs. “I was born in the small European country of Albania, and won a green card lottery to come to America in 1997. My parents left behind everyone and everything they knew so that my sister and I would be able to get a better education in America.”